

Pre-course introductory session	23 July
	26 July	27 July	28 July	29 July	30 July
Session 1 13.00-14.00	Keynote lecture Rév The Historian as an Expert Witness	Macrea-Toma Cold War Data Banks between Science and Politics	Macrea-Toma Asymmetrical Information Ecologies (case study: Chernobyl)	Tulbure The invention of macroeconomic categories: between competition and cooperation	White Critical policy studies, beyond political and objectivist epistemologies, communicating science
Break 30 minutes
Session 2 14.30-15.30	Andersson Cold War and the Rise of Expertise	Hîncu Making Sense of Sociological Data in the former Communist bloc	Tulbure Data-rich versus data-poor societies	Heinzel Globalization and Expertise: the “Lohn” system and the changes in the nature and the role of fashion trends.	Seminar: From knowledge to knowing: how to communicate science Emily & Ioana
Break 2 hours	One to one consultations	One to one consultations	One to one consultations	One to one consultations	One to one consultations
Session 3 17.30-19.00	Seminar or film evening Moderated by: Ioana & Jenny	Working group on politics of expert knowledge production Moderated by: Ioana & Adela	Working with data seminar Moderated by: Narcis & Emily	Seminar on Traveling concepts: East-West Moderated by: Tincuta & Narcis	Plenary session: Building the Republic of Trans-Science