1. Online Application Form

SUN's Online Application Form, delivered by Embark, enables the online submission of the application form itself as well as all other relevant documentation, including CV's and resumes, letter of recommendation, statements of purpose and application essays (such as research proposal, case study, paper proposal, writing samples, academic records, etc.), eliminating all paper mailing to the SUN Office.

Please note that you can only submit one application in the online system. In exceptional cases when an applicant is interested in participating in two courses, which is only possible if the two courses are run consecutively, s/he should contact the SUN Office at summeru@ceu.edu to receive instructions how to submit a second application. Financial aid is only available for attending one course.

The application form is password-protected.

a) In case you have started an application for our program in previous years, you can use your old login and password and can log in as a "Returning Embark User" (right-hand side of the page). In case you cannot remember your old password, click on the "Forget your password?" link.

b) In case you have not started an application before, please register first in the "New User?" section (left-hand side of the page). For registration please click on "Create an Account" and provide the requested information. Embark will send you your password by email and then you can log in and start your application, this time already as a returning user.

Further user's instructions for the online application are included in the form itself.

Should you have questions regarding the application form, check the relevant section in the FAQ.

2. Full Curriculum Vitae or resume, including list of publications, if any Please upload your Curriculum Vitae or resume, including a list of publications, if any.

3. Statement of Purpose (max. 1 page)

In your Statement of Purpose, please describe how the course is relevant to your professional work, research, or teaching; in what way you expect to benefit from it; and how you see your contribution to the course. Propose a specific research or praxis question in relation to the theme of the Course which you intend to explore in more depth during the School. Please list professional activities and/or courses you have taken previously - which are relevant to the theme of the course.

You are advised to consult the detailed course description on the course web page so that the statement of purpose is in accordance with the main objectives of the course.

4. Writing Sample in English (max. 10 pages), e.g. research proposal/ case study/ country report/ article /research paper/thesis, etc.

Please submit one of the following documents related to the course theme: a short essay (max. 10 pages) e.g. describing your views or questions in relation to the theme of the course; a research proposal or a case study or a country report or an article or a research paper or a (part of a) thesis.

Optional attachments:

- Copy of an article in English published recently (if available)
If you have an article published in English, please upload it in the online system.
- A copy of an English language certificate (if available) for non-native speakers of English
As proof of your English language proficiency, if you have passed a language exam, please upload a scanned copy of the exam result in the online system.

All application materials must be submitted electronically with the online application form. CEU does not accept application documents by e-mail or fax. Candidates who may experience difficulties with the online submission of their documents should contact the SUN Office.

CEU does not return application documents, or copies thereof under any circumstances. Applications submitted after the deadline will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
