

HOW TO APPLY

Please read the following directions carefully and before starting the application process. Below is the list of the documents you need to prepare or arrange for submission:

1. Completed online SUN Application Form
2. Letter of recommendation
3. A full curriculum vitae or resume, including a list of publications, if any
4. Statement of Purpose (max. 250 words)
5. Writing sample in English related to the course theme: a research paper or work in progress on the topic (3500 - 5000 words)

Optional attachments:

- A copy of an article in English published recently (if available)
- A copy of an English language certificate (if available)

1. Online Application Form

SUN's Online Application Form, delivered by Embark, enables the online submission of the application form itself as well as all other relevant documentation, including CV's and resumes, letter of recommendation, statements of purpose and application essays (such as research proposal, case study, paper proposal, writing samples, academic records, etc.), eliminating all paper mailing to the SUN Office.

In addition, applicants will be able to use this system to track their progress and learn the outcome of their admissions evaluation online. Admissions decisions will be available to applicants as soon as they are entered into the system.

Please note that you can only apply to one course.

Detailed user's instructions for the online application are included in the form itself. Should you have questions regarding the application form, check the relevant Frequently Asked Questions section of the Summer University web site.

2. Letter of Recommendation

Applicants must have one letter of recommendation submitted. Please arrange for a letter of recommendation to be written by a referee (faculty member, job supervisor, etc.) who can attest to your abilities, qualifications and academic/professional performance. Please advise the referee about the title and content of the course you are applying to. The letter must be completed in English and submitted by the referees online via the online application facility.

3. A full curriculum vitae or resume, including a list of publications, if any

4. Statement of Purpose (max. 250 words)

In the Statement of Purpose please describe how the course is relevant to your teaching, research or professional work, and in what way you expect to benefit from participating in the course. You are advised to consult the detailed course description on the course web page so that the statement of purpose is in accordance with the main objectives of the course. Please list previous courses you have taken or describe any previous experience that you had related to the course theme.

5. Writing sample in English related to the course theme: e.g. a research paper or work in progress on the topic (max. 3500-5000 words)

Please submit one of the following documents related to the course theme: a research paper or work in progress on the topic (max. 3500-5000 words). This piece should give us an idea of your academic and/or professional writing skills in the field, and an idea of your experience in the course subject. The publication of selected papers is being considered as an outcome of this course.

Optional attachments:

1. A copy of an article in English published recently (if available)
If you have an article published in English, please upload it in the online system.
2. A copy of an English language proficiency certificate (if available)
As proof of your English language proficiency, if you have passed a language exam, please upload a scanned copy of the exam result in the online system.

All application materials must be submitted electronically with the Online Application Form. CEU does not accept application documents by e-mail or fax. Candidates who may experience difficulties with the online submission of their documents should contact the SUN Office.

CEU does not return application documents, or copies thereof under any circumstances.

Applications submitted after the deadline will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
