

HOW TO APPLY

Please read the following directions carefully and before starting the application process.

Below is the list of the documents you need to prepare or arrange for submission:

- 1. Completed online SUN Application Form
- 2. A full curriculum vitae or resume, including a list of publications, if any
- 3. Statement of Purpose

Optional attachment:

- A copy of an English language proficiency certificate (if available)

1. Online Application Form

SUN's Online Application Form, delivered by Embark, enables the online submission of the application form itself as well as all other relevant documentation, including CV's and resumes, letter of recommendation, statements of purpose and application essays (such as research proposal, case study, paper proposal, writing samples, academic records, etc.), eliminating all paper mailing to the SUN Office.

In addition, applicants will be able to use this system to track their progress and learn the outcome of their admissions evaluation online. Admissions decisions will be available to applicants as soon as they are entered into the system.

Please note that you can only apply to one course.

Detailed user's instructions for the online application are included in the form itself. Should you have questions regarding the application form, check the relevant Frequently Asked Questions section of the Summer University web site.

2. A full curriculum vitae or resume, including a list of publications, if any

3. Statement of Purpose

In the Statement of Purpose please describe how the course is relevant to your teaching, research or professional work, and in what way you expect to benefit from it. Please list relevant courses in the field you have taken previously during your studies. You are advised to consult the detailed course description on the course web page so that the statement of purpose is in accordance with the main objectives of the course.

Optional attachment:

- A copy of an English language proficiency certificate (if available)

As proof of your English language proficiency, if you have passed a language exam, please upload a scanned copy of the exam result in the online system.

All application materials must be submitted electronically with the Online Application Form. CEU does not accept application documents by e-mail or fax. Candidates who may experience difficulties with the online submission of their documents should contact the SUN Office.

CEU does not return application documents, or copies thereof under any circumstances.

Applications submitted after the deadline will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Selection Process

The course will consist of two modules – on-line self-learning module (conducted in March-April of 2013) and in-residence course at CEU (conducted between 1–12 July, 2013). The self-learning module intends to familiarize the participants with the main theoretical approaches in the area of green industry.

Participation in Module 1 and in the on-line discussions will be a precondition for attending in-residence Module 2. The selection of the participants in Module 2 will be made based on the following criteria:

- Results of the on-line test after completion of Module 1 (40% weight)
- Quality of individual participants' activity as assessed by the e-learning facilitator (20% weight)
- Case study on one of the topics of the course, based on own country experience (up to 800 words) assessed by the Course Directors with the participation of the e-learning facilitator (40% weight).

Notification

The SUN Office will notify applicants about the selection results for the in-residence course in Budapest around the end of April. The final decision is not open to appeal.
